LOYALIST COLLEGE OF APPLIED ARTS AND TECHNOLOGY

Dear Harold,

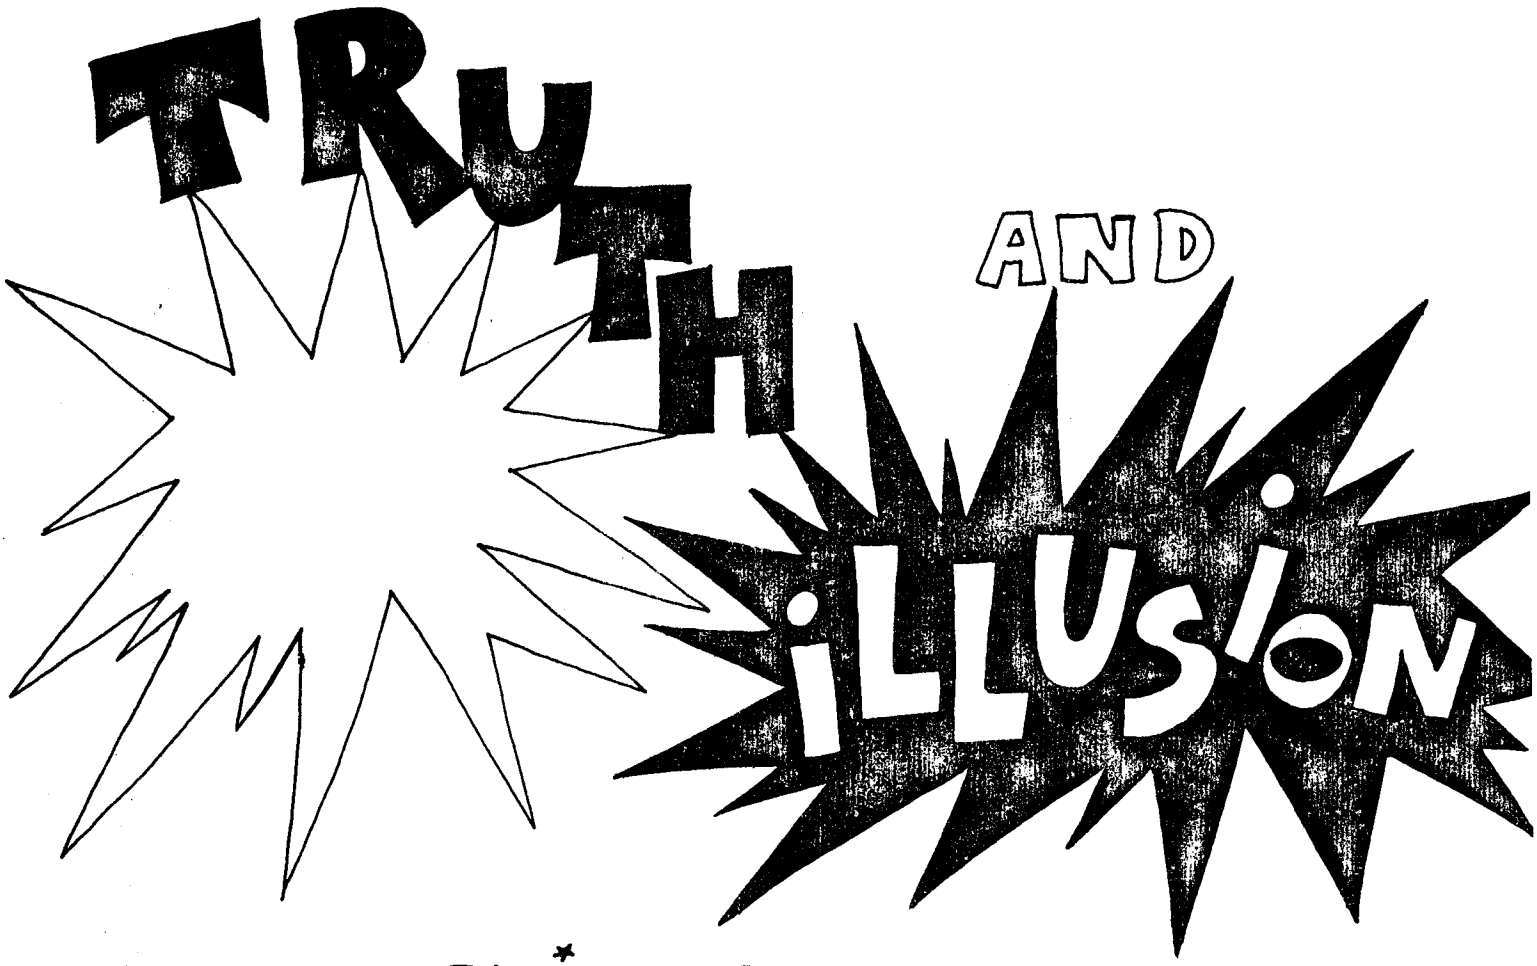
Mae reports that "the Hearst kidnapping was a CIA operation".

"I am a professor now on conspiracies".

I like Mae. She has prophetic moments. But her mind too often lapses into fantasies of an outre mode.

Gabe, N.G., & Salamalia appear cautious by comparison.

POLITICAL CONSPIRACY and ASSASSINATION



SPRING SEMESTER

HUMANITIES 195 - 2:10 - 4:00 - WED. - LF 102

An examination of political assassinations and related activities, mainly contemporary -- ranging from Dallas to Watergate -- but also historical and cross-cultural. A look at the web of social and political interaction to see assassinations in the context of the nature and stakes of modern political power. An attempt to understand the process of opinion formation, the unfolding of truth and illusion, and their impact on the lives of citizens.

Lectures by Mae Brussell, noted researcher in contemporary assassinations, David Yamada, Political Science instructor, and Ray Fabrizio, English instructor.
